COAHSI's Spring 2012 ABC Grants For Arts-in-Education

ABC Partnership Development Grants provide support for arts and education partners to explore compatibility through programs that integrate arts and non-arts subjects within the NYS Learning Standards. This program is administered by the Council on the Arts and Humanities for Staten Island (COAHSI), and funded by the Local Capacity Building (LCB) Initiative at the Arts-in-Education Program at the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA). These grants are available to all public, private, parochial or charter schools, pre-K thru 12, located in Staten Island for activities during spring of 2012 school year.

The LCB Initiative is a statewide effort to provide local support for widespread participation in arts-in-education. The applicant of record for this program will be the school, working with a teaching artist and/or cultural organization. Eligible projects will involve collaboration between at least one classroom teacher and one teaching artist.

COAHSI will award $12,000 through this program; maximum grant is $2,500, and average grant size is $2,000. For questions, contact Arts-in-Education Program Director Kelly Kuwabara at kkuwabara@statenilandarts.org. Please review the eligibility requirements before applying.

FIRST TIME APPLICANTS ATTEND THE APPLICATION SEMINAR AT 5:30 ON THURSDAY DECEMBER 15, 2011
COAHSI OFFICES, 1000 RICHMOND TERRACE BLDG G

Or contact Arts in Education Program Director Kelly Kuwabara before that date to request a meeting.

Deadline: January 17, 2012

ELIGIBILITY

Eligible:

- Schools serving pre-K through 12 in Staten Island.
- Activities are school-based and will occur during the regular school day;
- They involve at least three contact sessions between the same teaching artist and group of students;
- Activities and outcomes will be collaboratively designed, planned, taught, and evaluated by the participating teacher(s), teaching artist(s), and other school and community members;
- Student learning goals will address the New York State Learning Standards or Common Core Standards for both the arts and the non-arts subjects.

NOT eligible:

- Projects currently funded by or being considered by funding for NYSCA or PAE.
- Schools applying for a COAHSI Arts Investment Regrant for the same time period (even if it's a different project);
- Home schools;
- Stand-alone assembly programs, single performances, or one-time visits to cultural institutions;
- Projects that appear to replace the role of certified art, music, dance, or theatre teachers;
- Projects that focus on non-integrated, sequential arts education;
- Extracurricular activities that take place after the school day, in the summer, or during non-school hours;
- Programs where selected students are taken out of regular classes or are self-selected for participation;
- College-level courses, scholarships, contests, or student performing groups.

Evaluation - applications are reviewed by a panel of artists, educators and administrators for:

- Evidence of true partnership between the school and artist or organization (joint planning, reflection, and evaluation), and how well the project incorporates the NYS Learning Standards;
- Clarity and completeness of the proposal, including specific activities;
- Clarity and completeness of the budget;
- Evidence of past success shown in work samples.

Plus Factors - proposals may score higher if:

- This is a first time partnership;
- Artists are residents of New York State - priority for Staten Island artists and cultural organizations;
- Contact sessions are separated by enough time for reflection and refining;
- The school's certified art, music, dance, and/or theater teachers participate in the project in addition to the non-arts teacher(s);
- Collaboratively designed professional development activities support the project;
- The school partner contributes cash or materials to the project.

Additional Requirements:

- NYSCA and COAHSI must be credited on all publications and promotional materials.
- A final report of project activities and finances must be submitted. Partners are encouraged to keep a progress journal to help with evaluation and final reporting.

Deadline: January 17, 2012

NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

Maximum of 5 pages, minimum of 11 pt. font

- 1) Please describe the project and what will happen in the classroom sessions. Include the grade levels and number of students.
- 2) List the art forms and non-arts subjects involved, and how the NYS learning standards or Common Core Standards will be addressed in both.
- 3) What do you want the students to know, understand or be able to do as a result of this project?
- 4) How will you measure the extent to which the students have met the learning goals? What tools will you use? (For example, pre- and post-surveys, journaling, project presentation, rubric, etc.)
- 5) Provide a brief timeline of the project activities. Include planning meetings, classroom sessions, and evaluation.
- 6) Describe how parents, the entire school, and other community members, will be made aware of, involved in and benefit from the project.
- 7) If you previously received funding for this project, describe what you learned from your evaluation process and what improvements you are planning to implement.

SUPPORT MATERIALS:

- Private/parochial schools and cultural partners' 501 ©3 tax exemption letter from the IRS.
- Artist resume(s)
- Work samples from similar arts in education projects done by the artist or cultural partner
- Attach a list of the Planning & Implementation Team Members from the school and the cultural side of the partnership. Include the following information for each: Name, Address, Role in Project, Position or Affiliation, E-mail, Telephone. This list can be included as a separate page. If certified dance, music, art, or theater teachers will be involved in the project, briefly describe their role.

Deadline: January 17, 2012

BUDGET

Include a simple, clear budget of program costs and income. The budget should reflect the activities and staffing described in the narrative. Don't include food costs, which are not covered.

Generally the school partner contributes some cash toward the expenses of the project. This should be listed under "Income." The more the school is able to contribute, the higher the proposal may score during panel deliberations. However if the partnership is unable to garner any financial support for this project, please explain why and describe specific efforts to find sources of income.

School contributions can sometimes take the form of in-kind contributions and can be listed below the total expenses on the budget application. (e.g., donated items or materials that would otherwise be an expense).
